"I was there to make a sketch of her. Luncheon was just over, and she was talking to a little knot of women. The first words I heard, as I slid quietly into a nearby seat, were, 'National Biscuit,' recalling pleasantly my own tasty Uneeda Luncheon. I liked her, and, as she spoke again, my pen nib, there are days when we had and early in the daylight, we were our party days.

Bringing to the door of your dining room—as close as your own kitchen—the matchless facilities of the best and most wholesome bakeries in the world. Uneeda Biscuit come to you as fresh and immaculate as when they were taken from the oven.

THE COSMETIC OF THE INANIMATE.

I am the saver of surfaces.
I am the world-old preserver.
Noah knew me, for he pitched the ark within and without.
The Pharaohs sought me as an adornment for their tombs—their mummies endure because I conserve.
I am the woad of the ancient Britons: their blue battle hue.
Because of me the treasures of the Sistine Chapel defy effacement.
I am the keeper of the antique.
I am the servant of progress.
Columbus found me bedecking the savages who watched him plant Ferdinand's banner on the shores of New Spain; and the very sails of his caravels resisted the elements of the West through my aid.
The pioneers westward wending their way daubed the prairie schooners with my protection.
I am the royal robes of civilization's monarchs, Steel and Lumber.
The taut wings of the airplane gleam under my protective veneer.
The sullen dreadnaught and the homing transport plow the seas impervious to corrosion because of me.
I waterproofed your agents of destruction, the bullet and the shell.
Then I drew the mercy of my concealing camouflage over your hospitals.
I glisten on the homes, and on the barns, and on the cement surfaces.
Where life is, I am alive.
Where death and decay set in my absence hastens them.
And my mission is to preserve.
Saver of Surface, I am PAINT!
